Vicki Jodsaas Attends Family Business Conference

Vicki Jodsaas, president of The Competitive Edge, has recently attended the 2010 Family Business Conference hosted by the Prairie Family Business Association. The conference provided quality educational resources which assist business owning families and advisors in understanding the unique issues that are part of the family business system.

Jodsaas, who is a certified family business advisor, shared, "Family businesses make up such a large percent of today's businesses; I feel it is important for The Competitive Edge to support these business' unique needs. We strive to implement the best practices to assure that families continue to nurture their family values and relationships, develop profitable companies, and create competent and committed shareholders for the following generations."
